

Analise – 2008

Anthony – 2010

Katlin – 2013

Analise, Anthony, and Katlin are a joyful and loving trio!

A few words that describe Analise are: intelligent, outgoing, helpful, kind and loving. She is a wonderful big sister and loves Anthony and Katlin very much. She enjoys, dancing and being outdoors whether it's to run, play soccer, or go swimming. Analise is a social butterfly – she makes friends easily and enjoys having slumber parties. Analise is in the third grade – she loves school and excels academically.

Anthony is an energetic, fun-loving kid. He likes playing sports, wrestling, building with Legos, and caring for animals. Anthony does well with peers – he likes school and is in the first grade. When Anthony grows up he wants to become a policeman because he likes helping people.

Little sister Katlin is an energetic toddler who loves kitty cats and doggies. Having a special bond with the foster family's dogs, Katlin will spend most of her time cuddling and petting the dogs. She likes getting her nails painted, playing with her friends at pre-school and dancing to music.

For more information about Analise, Anthony, and Katlin or about the adoption process, please email Tracey Somers at tsomers@dcfs.nv.gov.